Americans today are extremely mobile. We live in a fast-paced society and spend more time away from home than ever before.

- Grandchildren, children and loved ones are often spread across the country.
- Employees are retiring early and are on the road experiencing other cultures.
- People with medical conditions are seeking treatment in medical centers.
- Families and individuals travel for business and pleasure for weeks at a time.

However, we all tend to forget that when we are away from home anything can happen.

WHAT WILL YOUR FAMILY DO IN THE UNFORTUNATE EVENT THAT YOU DIE AWAY FROM HOME?

Basic health insurance plans and even Medicare do not offer coverage that addresses this major issue.

Don't leave a major burden behind for your family. Protect them with a MASA Assist Transportation and Relocation Protection Plan.
